FOR THE LITTLE ONES.

Any Number May Play Sheep and Shepherd Game.

One of the players in this game is selected to act as shepherd. The rest, who may be as numerous as they choose, play the part of his herd. The shepherd's eyes are bandaged, and he is led to a spot which is to be the "sheep fold."

One of the sheep walks to him, taps him on the shoulder and asks:

"How many steps will you allow me to take, oh, kind shepherd?"

The shepherd answers, designating a certain number. The sheep goes that distance, in any direction that it may choose, and stands still.

Thus sheep after sheep goes till the last one is placed. When the shepherd observes that no more sheep come up to him he cries: "Sheep! Sheep! Where are you, my dear herd?"

Then all the sheep must say, "Ba-a-a!" in chorus, and the shepherd advances and seizes one.

The seized one must say, "Ba-a-a!" again, and the shepherd must guess who it is instantly. If he guesses the right person the caught sheep becomes the shepherd. If the shepherd fails in his guess he must catch another sheep, and so on.

The Sleepy Man.

I've tried to catch the Sleepy Man;
I've shut my eyes and breathed
So hard I thought he'd come and peep—
I was the one deceived.

Just when I thought he'd surely come
And I would hold him fast—
Somehow I can't remember what
It was I thought of last.

But when I got awake again
And fixed my eyes upon
The place where I expected him—
Why, he'd been there and gone.

I've tucked my baby brother up
In my own little bed
And got behind a chair and watched
The Man sleep him instead,

But brother got his feet up, out,
To kiss his little toes;
He kept the Sleepy Man away—
And that's the way it goes.

—Delineator.

Game of Hook Ringing.

Fasten a hook about the size of the ordinary meat hook on a wall or a tree at a height of about nine feet from the ground.

Now tie a strong but light cord twenty feet long to a fairly heavy ring of about twice the diameter of a curtain pole ring.

Stand fifteen feet away from the hook and try to throw the ring over the hook so that it will remain hanging there. The cord enables you to recover it every time you fail, and after a little practice the cord will also make it possible for a skillful player to guide the ring to some extent.

The First Schoolhouse Flag.

It is claimed that the first flag raised on a schoolhouse was hoisted in Colerain, Franklin county, Mass., in May, 1812. Last May the citizens of the town placed a stone slab on the site of the old schoolhouse, and on the Fourth of July it was unveiled with appropriate ceremonies. The flag raised in 1812 was made by Mr. and Mrs. Anasa Shippee, Mrs. Alden Williss and Mrs. Steven Hale from materials spun and woven in the different homes of the neighborhood.

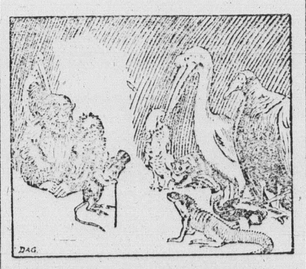
Cutting Glass Under Water.

Imagine trying to cut a sheet of glass with a pair of shears! How many cracks would form! How many pieces fly into the air! But try it under water. You will be surprised to see what a fine bit of cutting you can do there. Only be sure that the glass, the shears and your hands are all entirely immersed in the water.

Don'ts to Boys.

Don't wear your hat in the house.
Don't sit while a caller stands.
Don't get into the habit of using slang. Vulgar expressions denote degeneracy.
Don't be ashamed of gallantry toward women and girls. A gentleman is always courteous toward the opposite sex.

At the Zoo.



There once was a rat kangaroo
Who delighted his friends at the zoo.
He would take off his hat
Like a well behaved rat
And nod a polite "How d' do?"
—Youth's Companion.

Horses In Japan.

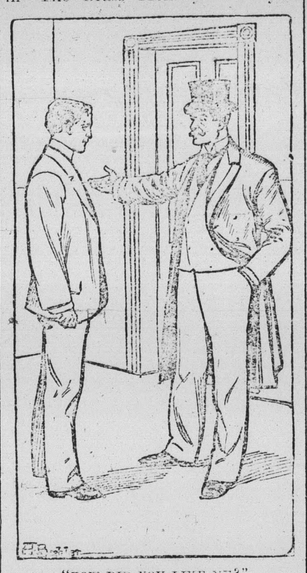
In Japan a horse is put in the stable with his tail where the head of an American horse would be. That seems funny, doesn't it? He eats his food from a bucket suspended from the ceiling, and when he goes out he wears straw slippers.

CONDENSED STORIES.

How Charles Hoyt Dismissed an Unsatisfactory Actor.

Julian Mitchell was for years stage manager for Charles Hoyt and, with Tim Murphy, Otis Harlan and Harry Conor, shares the honor of frequently reviving the Hoyt stories, says the New York Times. Mr. Mitchell's newest contribution concerns the actor to whom Hoyt on one occasion observed:

"By the way, there is a part open in 'The Brass Monkey.' Do you think you could play it?" And Hoyt named the character.



"HOW DID YOU LIKE ME?"

"Certainly, Mr. Hoyt," said the actor. "That part is just in my line."

"Well," said Mr. Hoyt, "I'll give you a chance at it. The company is up in New York state. You join it, and I will come up to Elmira and see how well you play it."

The day came, and Hoyt was on hand to see the performance. The actor was very bad, and after the play was over Hoyt went back on the stage to see him.

"Well, Mr. Hoyt, how did you like me?"

"Rotten," was the characteristic answer.

"To tell you the truth, Mr. Hoyt, the part is not just in my line," said the abashed player.

"No," returned Hoyt. "Your line is the Erie."

Doing His Best.

W. M. Tilghmann, an Oklahoma sheriff and a one time partner of Bat Masterson in Kansas, was in New York recently and while here told this story:

"A posse was one day looking for a bad man who was the real thing. Bat and I and several others were in the bunch, and we ambushed our man, and when he was within twenty steps we suddenly showed ourselves and ordered him to throw up his hands.

"He was on horseback, and he promptly drew a revolver. There was nothing else for us to do, and five of us fired, and the bad man tumbled from his pony. We went to him and found that, while he was badly wounded, he was not dead. He cursed us roundly and then grew sarcastic.

"'You are a fine lot of marksmen,' he said. 'If I had fired right at a man like that I would have killed him, you bet.'

"Masterson seemed grieved at the complaint, and he said sincerely: 'Well, now, don't blame me. I did my best.'"—New York Times.

A Homely Criticism.

"Uncle Joe Cannon is sometimes too homely and direct and harsh in his comments," said a young journalist. "I was not at all pleased with the remark he made to me while I was speaking at the X banquet.

"Of course I am an inexperienced speaker. I can't rattle off words like the veterans of the senate and house. I admit that I began my address in a faltering way. I began, if I remember:

"'Gentlemen, my opinion is that the generality of mankind in general is disposed to take advantage of the generality of'—

"Here Uncle Joe interrupted me.

"'Sit down, son,' he said. 'You are coming out of the same hole you went in at.'"—Kansas City Journal.

A Quick Witted Hero.

Bismarck had to confer the iron cross on a hero in the ranks one day and, thinking to try his humor—which was of the elephantine order—on the man, said:

"I am authorized to offer you instead of the cross 100 thalers. What do you say?"

"What is the cross worth?" quietly asked the man.

"About 3 thalers."

"Very well, then, your highness, I'll take the cross and 97 thalers."—Philadelphia Ledger.

ALL OVER THE HOUSE.

Directions For Washing Fabrics That Are Likely to Fade.

In washing stockings, socks or flannels they should never be put into hard water, for not only does it shrink them, but it hardens the fiber. Again, fabrics that are likely to fade should be soaked and rinsed in very salt water, to set the color, before washing in suds. Dye in colored clothing will not run if each garment is first soaked in a salt solution in the proportion of one teacupful of salt to every pail of water. Quick drying is the only method that does not fade them, too, and when such goods as calicoes, ginghams and chintzes are ironed the smoothing should be done on the wrong side, to keep the colors fresh. Green cloth is kept from fading if alum is used in the rinsing water. Tan colored or brown linen needs to be dipped in hay water. This is made by pouring boiling water on a few handfuls of hay and letting it steep a few moments.

Codfish With Oyster Sauce.

Lay a fresh cod in cold, salted water and allow it to remain for half an hour. After it has been dredged with flour put it into a big cloth bag, sew up the end and put it into slightly salted boiling water. A delicate flavor is obtained by adding a few cloves and peppers to the salted water. This requires a good deal of cooking, and the fish is done if the fins come out easily when gently pulled. Remove the bag carefully so as not to break the fish, lay in a platter and cover with finely chopped bits of parsley and oyster sauce.

Eggs and Cheese.

Cut very thin a quarter of a pound of cheese and put it in a frying pan over a slow fire. Add to it half a cupful of milk, butter, a pinch each of salt and pepper. Stir until the cheese is almost melted. Then add three well beaten eggs with half a cupful of milk. Cook until set, and serve in a hot dish or on thin toast. An agate pan is much the best for cheese.

Save Bits of Soap.

Take dry bits of old soap and pound them to a powder. Put them in a bowl and set the bowl in boiling water. To a cup of the powder add a quart of water. To this add ten drops of benzoin and a tablespoonful of borax powder. Let it simmer until the soap is dissolved. Pour to cool into wide mouthed bottle.

Dye For the Hair.

The following hair dye is to be used after the hair has been thoroughly shampooed with castile soap and dried. Do not prepare it yourself, but intrust it to a good druggist: One quarter ounce pyrogalic acid dissolved in one and one-half ounces of hot distilled water. When cool add one ounce of alcohol.

Sewing Black Cotton Goods.

When sewing black cotton materials, such as Italian cloth, sateen and black prints, always use silk, as the black sewing cotton turns rusty with wear and washing and spoils the appearance of the articles on which it is used.

Toast For Invalids.

A sick person will sometimes eat water toast when other food is repugnant. Toast bread crisply and dip just for a second in boiling salted water. Remove instantly to a hot dish, butter lightly and serve.

BAD STOMACH MAKES BAD BLOOD.

You can't make sweet butter in a foul churn. Every farmer's wife knows this. Your stomach churns and digests the food you eat, and if foul, torpid or out of order, your whole system suffers from blood poisoning. You will have foul breath, coated tongue, bad taste, poor appetite and a whole train of disagreeable symptoms. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which is not a beverage composed of whisky or alcohol, being entirely free from intoxicants, is a great regulator and invigorator of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

"About a year ago I was ill with blood poisoning," writes Miss Eveline Louis, of 89 Walter Street, Buffalo, N. Y. "I had what seemed to be a small cold sore on my lip. It became very angry in appearance and began to spread until it nearly covered my face. I was a frightful sight and could not go outside the house because of my appearance. I used a blood medicine which did not give me any relief. Then I began to take your 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I was greatly benefited with the first bottle and after taking the second bottle was completely cured. The erysipelatous eruption disappeared and my blood was cleansed. My complexion is clear and fresh and I have felt better this year than I did for some time before. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is certainly a most remarkable medicine."

Don't accept a substitute for a medicine which performs such cures and which has a uniformly successful record of nearly forty years to its credit. It's an insult to your intelligence for a dealer to try by over-persuasion to palm off upon you in its stead some inferior article with no record to back it up. You know what you want; it is his business to meet that want.

$50,000 GIVEN AWAY, in copies of The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book that sold to the extent of 500,000 copies a few years ago, at $1.50 per copy. If so, send only 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only for book in stiff paper covers, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

The Bond Election.

In about ten days the proposition of bonding Sonoma for $10,000 is to come before the people. The need of a new city hall is apparent and the neccessity of bonding the town for the same, is obvious. If the people are agreed that we need the city hall not one should hesiate to vote bonds to carry out the project. As a matter of fact it would take some very indefinite time to get enough money in the treasuary by present means of revenue to start work on the building. Then a certain amount of time would go by while the bids were being advertised for, etc. If the trustees went about it that way time would drag and then when the work was begun it is ten to one that this, that and the other thing would have to be cut out of the plans in order to keep the price down and as a result we would have a botched up building—a city hall that the architect would probably never recognize as his own creation or would not care to recognize as such.

If the building is to be built as it should be and as quickly as it should be bonds should be voted. With the neccessary amount of money the building can be put up according to the plans and specifications and will look as intended, but if the tiled roof were cut out, cheap stone work substituted and other changes made the brewery building would undoubtedly be more pleasing to the eye than such a city hall.

Let us vote the bonds. It is the modern way to get modern improvemtens. Arguments should not be neccessay to convince the voter that it is the proper way. It was good enough for Sebastopol and Santa Rosa. It is being done by Cloverdale. It should be done by Sonoma.

The debt that will be incurred by the city can be handed down with the improvement to the future generation, who will welcome it and be glad to know that this generation was not composed entirely of fossils.

The carrying of the bond election will lay the future foundation for Sonoma's greatness.

Good Money.

There is considerable talk concerning the attitude of the churches toward the acceptance of the Rockefeller millions. Some still incline to the opinion that Mr. Rockefeller squeezed his money dishonestly out of the people through the wicked source of trusts, and since it is that kind of money that he proffers to the churches, all churches should repudiate it. Those of these views believe that it would appear as if the trusts were buying the good will of the churches and they scorn this very idea with the vehement statement that the trusts may buy some things, but not the American people, of which they claim to be fair samples.

It seems strange that such a feeling should exist, for to the most casual observer it should be plain that money itself has no character, good or bad, only in so much as what it can purchase if turned into good or bad channels. If the opponents to the acceptance of Rockefeller millions would stop to consider, they must realize that if Mr. Rockefeller is such a bad fellow to handle money that the church could handle it better and turn it to good account. Why then should they object? To refuse to handle it as if polluted is about as foolish as the superstitious savage who refuses to handle the stone, which he believes to be the property of wicked gods.

Any money which can be turned into good channels is good.

As Emerson has said "a dollar in a university is worth more than a dollar in jail; in a temperate, schooled, law-abiding community than in some sink of crime, etc."

The fact that Nan Patterson is said to be going on the stage at a salary of $1200 a week will probably be commented on widely, and to her discredit. It is, however, the only avenue open to her. It is her business—the only one to which she would naturally turn to make a living. Where once she made but $8 a week in the chorus, she can now make so much an hour. She could not live on $8 a week, which probably forced her to the life she lead, but with $1200 a week and the lesson she has learned she should make a success of life for herself and family—a financial success, which is probably absolutely necessary after the expense of her trial.

Sonoma has taken a notion to grow and we are on the highway to success; but we still need better train service. That seems to be the opinion of outsiders who would settle here. They are delighted with all Sonoma has to offer, but complain of inaccessibility to San Francisco. If the railroads could see their way clear to make the trip to the metropolis in quicker time, we could induce many more people to locate here.

Just a word on tipping
For time is flitting—flitting.
One minute friends,
Another of my tales
If tipping's made unlawful
It will be something awful
Because we cannot even tip the scales.

The law has just gone into effect according to which the blushing bride-to-be must appear with the man of her choice at the desk of Cupid for a marriage license.

Everybody is talking Portland these days as the Fair opens June 1st. The railroads have begun to advertise their rates and soon the pilgrimage northwest will begin.

SONOMA'S GROWTH HAS BEEN RAPID.

Amount of New Buildings Erected of Late and New Business Enterprises Started.

By looking backwards at Sonoma's growth we are able to get something like statistical facts about the amount of building which has been done in the past year or two and the number of new business enterprises that have been started in the town of late. Sonoma has certainly been forging ahead as will be seen from the following: Among the houses and buildings erected have been a two-story residence by William Goodman, a two-story residence by Capt. P. N. Stofen, a cottage by William McElroy, a cottage by D. Volquardsen, a cottage by M. Warriner, a two-story residence by Murphy Bros., several cottages by Mrs. J. P. Weems, a cottage by G. W. Reed, a cottage by Claude Johnson, two cottages by M. Roberts, cottages by Chas. Dal Pogetto, cottage by Fred Bulotti, two-story stone building by Chas. Dal Pogetto, two-story stone building by A. Castex, shop by H. Calderwood, office and residence by D. H. Twing, building by Clewe estate, buildings by A. Adler, cottages being erected by R. Murphy, by M. Kiser, by E. Eraldi, wine cellars being built by L. Quartaroli, three-story building for new brewery.

The new business enterprises include a brewery, three barber shops, two lawyers, a tailor, three hotels, soda works, ice plant, planing mill, lumber yard, telephone systems, vegetable and fish market, three shoe makers, French laundry, real estate dealer, watch maker, wood and coal yard, three new saloons, dentist and winery.

Died Suddenly.

W. E. Baines, of the real estate firm of Peters & Baines, died very suddenly of heart disease in San Francisco Thursday. Mr. Baines was identified closely with this valley, where his relatives reside. He was well thought of in commercial circles, and his untimely death has shocked his many acquaintances. Deceased was born in Canada thirty-nine years ago. Mr. Baines came to the coast about twelve years ago and built the first great log rafts ever brought from Puget Sound to San Francisco. He was backed in these ventures by the Crocker-Woolworth bank. During his experience as a builder of these rafts he had many thrilling experiences, and won renown for his bravery. The remains will be brought up to El Verano this morning, and the funeral will take place from the home of his mother tomorrow at noon.

Townspeople in Trouble.

Many people are troubled with poor eyesight and many more suffer with headaches due to eye-weakness. If sufferers could submit their cases to a reliable optician instant relief would be afforded. The largest firm of manufacturing opticians in California has adopted a policy which permits the people of this locality to obtain the relief they need. An expert optician from the Chinn-Beretta Optical Company visits this locality every six weeks and his advent is always announced in this paper. Eye sufferers should watch for his coming and consult him when he arrives. He makes his headquarters at L. S. Simmons' drug store. Every one who who seeks the services of an expert is thus enabled to obtain them without going to the expense of a trip to the city. This should appeal to all who have eye-troubles or who are using glasses at present which are unsatisfactory. The Chinn-Beretta Optical Company are the largest manufacturers of eye-glasses and spectacle lenses on the Pacific Coast, having stores and factories at San Francisco, Oakland, Sacramento and Stockton, and guarantee all their work. The prices asked are said to be the lowest, as the firm sells direct to its customers at manufacturer's prices. L. S. Simmons, local agent. *

When the Farm Commissioners Come.

When the University Farm Commissioners come to inspect the site offered by Sonoma it is probable that they will be brought up here in the private car of President A. W. Foster. They will then be driven by the Board of Trade to the Lewis property, which they will look over with a view to ascertaining whether it is a good site for the experimental work.

NATIONAL GUARDS AT AGUA CALIENTE.

Boys in Blue Have Sham Battle at Popular Summer Resort—May Encamp Here.

A detachment of National Guards came up to Agua Caliente Springs Sunday morning at the invitation of Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Richards and spent the day at the popular summer resort. In the afternoon they gave a sham battle which was witnessed by a large number of guests and visitors from all over the valley and vicinity. The clever maneuvers were greatly enjoyed by the large crowd who cheered and applauded the boys in blue.

The officers of the military organization were very enthusiastic over the valley and Mr. Richards is making an effort to get the big encampment here. Last year it was held in Paso Robles and made it decidly lively for that city. It would mean a great deal to Sonoma if Mr. Richards efforts are successful. It was with this end in view that the boys were invited up on Sunday. They were treated so royally and like the valley so well that we stand a good chance to get the encampment. It would mean hundreds of dollars to our people.

The soldier boys departed for San Francisco on the late afternoon train amid bugle calls and the strains of "Goodbye Little Girl Goodbye." They were loud in their praises of Mr. and Mrs. Richards' hospitality.

TO THE PUBLIC.

OFFICE OF

Northwestern Redwood Co.

WILLITS, Cal., May 13, 1905.

As our lumber mills are now in full operation and ready to furnish lumber, we have concluded to encourage building in the Northwestern Addition to the Town of Willits, by offering for a limited period, namely, from date to June 5th, 1905, by subscription only, about every other lot unsold on sewered street in said addition, at one-half the price heretofore held at, and to furnish lumber at wholesale prices to purchasers of lots who will build thereon within six months from date.

As these lots are all on streets with main sewers, laid at our expense, and the only ones in Willits entitled to sewer connection, purchasers will acquire a valuable privilege not often obtained in country towns, except at great expense. The mains of the Willits Water and Power Company are laid throughout the property with fire hydrants on ever block. The streets are all graded and nearly all are graveled and curbed, and electric lighting can be extended to all.

Prices, maps and application blanks for the purchase of lots can be had from Mr. Chas. F. Craig, Willits.

A deposit of ten per cent of the purchase price will be required, as an evidence of good faith, with each application. The deposit to be returned, if sufficient lots are not subscribed for to warrant the company making this sacrifice, to encourage building.

The subscription list will close JUNE 6th and allotment will be made as soon thereafter as possible. Should two or more persons make offer for the same lot or lots, they will be awarded by lot or by bidding between the parties, at the option of one or more of them.

This is a bona fide attempt to encourage building, and in view of the contemplated railway construction from Willits to Eureka of at least one railway, we are justified in expressing the opinion that no better opportunity for investment exists to-day in the State.

Any person desiring to immediately build can borrow locally on these lots at a moderate rate of interest.

TWO BORN FINANCIERS.

Two budding financiers have been unearthed by the police. These worthies, aged twelve and fourteen, have in a single day made 9,000 per cent on the capital of a penny. Obtaining entrance with this sum to a lavatory, No. 1 removed his nether garments. These were pawned by No. 2 for 50 cents. With the capital thus brought into the business he bought a watch on the installment system. A loss of $2.50 was now floated with the aid of the watch at a second pawnbroker's. He returned to pawnbroker A and took "out" the trousers, which were then resumed by No. 1, and the two divided between them the $2 minus working expenses, friction on boot leather, etc. Allowing for Sundays and short holidays for the directors on the Riviera, the company's annual profits at this rate would be nearly 3,000,000 per cent.—London Globe.

Paying England's Fighters.

Great Britain's greatest soldiers and sailors receive great rewards for their services. It is now proposed to give an honorarium of $125,000 to Admiral Sir John Fisher, first lord of the admiralty. Lord Wolseley received an award of $125,000 after the Ashanti expedition and another of equal amount at the conclusion of the Egyptian war in 1882. Lord Alcester received a peerage and $125,000 for the bombardment of Alexandria, a day's work, which was valuable largely because it disclosed the weakness of the British navy at that time. Lord Roberts received $500,000 besides his full pay as commander in chief for his work in the Boer war, and Lord Kitchener received $250,000 for his services in the same struggle.

What Watterson Escaped.

You will observe that I speak trippingly of the older New York. In a desultory way I grew up there and thereabout. In ante bellum days my father was a not inconsiderable real estate owner in the then upper end, now the heart, of Manhattan Island. The war of secession came, and, being a southerner, he let his holdings go, otherwise I might now be of the original Four Hundred, with an ocean going yacht over in the deep waters of Villefranche, and a thousand horsepower Mercedes in the palatial coachhouse of the Grand Hotel de Cimiez instead of a wandering scribe and your humble servant.—Henry Watterson in Louisville Courier-Journal.

Some Modern Bulkheads.

It was recently discovered that the bulkheads in some of England's modern warships are useless to resist sea water pressure. By order of the admiral of the channel fleet the steel walls of all the spirit rooms were shored up and water was pumped in. Long before the compartments in several of the ships were full the water tight doors and walls began to give and buckled several inches. Had the rooms been filled with water, as they might have been in the event of collision, and had there been no shores the walls would inevitably have burst and the other bulkheads gone in turn, with disastrous results.

A Redwood Monarch.

At Brookdale, Santa Cruz county, Cal., a fine specimen of the sequoia, or redwood tree, was blown over in a recent storm. The tree is estimated to be over 330 years old. Ten feet from the top of the tree and at a distance of 165 feet from the ground was found a hole somewhat less than two feet deep. It had once been the nest of a woodpecker. In this hole had grown a sturdy, three stalked huckleberry bush two feet tall. Its roots, extending six feet into the heart of the tree, had absorbed the sap of the redwood. The huckleberry had flourished and borne fruit.

A Bottle Gun.

Vice Admiral Guimares of the Brazilian navy has brought forward a "bottle gun." The gun is made of bronze, but the chamber at the breech which contains the propelling charge is of steel. The projectile, which is loaded at the breech, is an ordinary wine bottle filled with sawdust steeped in oil. When the gun is discharged the bottle is broken and its contents scattered over the water for a considerable distance. By discharging the gun every five minutes a smoother pathway is made for the advancing vessel.

A Tough Mule.

A correspondent who was with Colonel Younghusband's mission to Tibet tells a mule story: "Mules apparently do not die from any cause. When the mission first crossed the Jelapla a mule slipped in the dusk and fell into the lake at the bottom of the pass. It was thought to be drowned. Next morning a convoy found it with its nose just above the ice, the rest of the body literally frozen in. Pickaxes were brought and the animal was dug out. It is now working as usual."

OPEN-TOP OBSERVATION CARS

Something New for Travelers to the East

A novelty in railway passenger equipment will shortly be introduced by the Denver & Rio Grande Railroad Company. That company is now building a number of open top observation cars to be attached during the summer months to its daylight trains running through the Royal Gorge, Grand Canon of the Arkansas, Canon of the Grand River, and the Black Canon of the Gunnison. These cars are of modern construction and have a seating capacity for seventy-two persons; sides but no tops, being entirely open, thus giving passengers from California to the East a free and unobstructed view of the grand scenery of the Rocky Mountains.

These cars will be entirely at the service—free of charge—to all occupants of through sleepers of all classes.

This is but one of the many comforts and advantages offered by this, The Scenic Line of the World. Ask W. J. Shotwell, General Agent, 625 Market street, San Francisco, for handsomely illustrated traveler's guide; sent free of charge.

Two Times.

The expressions "time" and "right time," as used by the North sea trawlers, were explained by the managing director of the gamecock fleet at the board of trade inquiry at Hull concerning the firing by the Russians upon the English fishermen.

The clocks on the fishing trawlers are set an hour faster than Greenwich time in order that the catch of fish may be delivered to the receiving boat and reach the Hull market promptly.

The witness was asked what the fishermen would gain if they knew the clocks were fast.

The manager answered that it was an old custom and that such traditions have great weight with fishermen.

Method In War.

William B. Parsons tells the following anecdote of Field Marshal Oyama as related to him by a war correspondent:

A certain colonel asked permission to sacrifice himself and command by capturing a certain redoubt.

"Which redoubt?"

The colonel repeated.

"My brother," said Oyama after consulting his notes, "such glory is not for you. It has been assigned to another. Besides, it is early dawn now, and that redoubt is set down to be taken at half past 10."

At that hour the colonel was far away from the redoubt, but it was captured on time.

Why Suffer from Rheumatism.

Why suffer from rheumatism when one application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm will relieve the pain? The quick relief which this liniment affords makes rest and sleep possible, and that alone is worth many times its cost. Many who have used it hoping only for a short relief from suffering have been happily surprised to find that after awhile the relief became permanent. Mrs. V. H. Leggett of Yum Yum, Tennessee. U. S. A., writes: "I am a great sufferer from rheumatism, all over from head to foot, and Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the only thing that will relieve the pain. For sale by Shoults & Co.

Nan Patterson is not of the Tombs and is at her old home in New Jersey.

Growing Aches and Pains

Mrs. Josie Sumner, Bremond, Texas, writes April 15, 1902: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment in my family for three years. I would not be without it in the house. I have used it on my little girl for growing pains and aches in her knees. It cured her right away. I have also used it for frost bitten feet, with good success. It is the best liniment I ever used. 25c 50c, and $1. Sold by L. S. Simmons.

Embezzler Smith is now in jail in San Francisco.

A large crowd visited this valley Saturday night and Sunday.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Very Best

"I have been using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and want to say it is the best cough medicine I have ever taken," says Geo. L. Chubb, a merchant of Harlan, Mich. There is no question about its being the best, as it will cure a cough or cold in less time than any other treatment. It should always be kept in the house ready for instant use, for a cold can be cured in much less time when promptly treated. For sale by Shoults & Co.

Attorney Collins has been charged with bigamy.

A Good Family Liniment.

Every family should be supplied with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For cuts, bruises, burns scalds and similiar injuries, which are of frequent occurrence, there is nothing so good. It soothes the wound and not only gives instant releif from pain, but causes the parts to heal in about one-third the time required by the usual treatment. As it is antiseptic all danger from blood-poisoning is avoided Sold by Shoults & Co.

Vote $10,000 for the new city hall at the bond election June first.

A Good Suggestion.

Mr. C. B. Wainwright of Lemon City, Fla., has written the manufactures that much better results are obtained from the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in cases of pains in the stomach, colic and cholera morbus by taking it in water as hot as can be drank. That when taken in this way the effect is double in rapidity. "It seems to get at the right spot instantly," he says. For sale by Shoults & Co.

The Sunday California Northwestern trains are making fine time.

Herbine.

Will overcome indigestion and dyspepsia, regulate the bowels and cure liver and kidney complaints. It is the best blood enricher and invigorator in the world. It is purely vegetable, perfectly harmless and should you be a sufferer from disease you will use it if you are wise. R. N. Andrews, editor and manager Cocoa and Rockledge News, Cocoa, Fla., writes: I have used your Herbine in my family, and find it a most excellent medicine. Its effects upon myself have been a marked benefit Sold by L. S. Simmons.

May day dampened the ardor of picnicers, as rain fell all day long in this section of the State.

A Positive Neccessity.

Having to lay upon my bed for 14 days from a severely bruised leg, I only found relief when I used a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment. I can cheerfully recommend it as the best medicine for bruises ever sent to the afflicted. It has now become a postive necessity upon myself. D. R. Byrens, Merchant, Doversville, Texas. 25c. 50c and $1.00. Sold by L. S. Simmons.

Exposure.

To cold draughts of air, to keen and cutting winds, sudden changes of the temperature, scanty clothing, undue exposure of the throat and neck after public speaking and singing, brings on coughs and colds. Ballard's Horehound Syrup is the best cure Mrs. A. Barr, Houston, Tex., writes, Jan. 31, 1902: "One bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup cured me of a very bad cough. It is very pleasant to take. Sold by L. S. Simmons.
